

RUTINI APARTADO

GRAN MERLOT

Variety

100% Merlot

Origin

El Cepillo Estate, Uco Valley

Soil

Characterized by the presence of angular amorphous colluvial rocks resting over a matrix of carbonate-rich sands and clays known as caliche.

Vineyard Altitude

1.100 m.a.s.l

Tasting Notes

A cool-climate mountain Merlot of great elegance, expressing red fruit, spice, and a vibrant freshness driven by its natural acidity. Floral notes and a subtle mineral profile add complexity and finesse. On the palate, it is precise, with refined tannins.

Piring Suggestions

Ideal with lamb, duck, or fine-textured grilled red meats. It also pairs beautifully with mushroom-based dishes, roasted vegetables, and fresh herbs. Its natural freshness and refined tannins make it an excellent match for medium-aged cheeses.

Aging Potential

Up to 30 years
