APARTADO
RUTINI

GRAN MERLOT

VARIETAL
100% Merlot

ORIGIN
Finca El Cepillo

SOIL
Characterized by the presence of angular, amorphous rocks of colluvial origin, deposited over a matrix of calcareous sands and clays known as caliche.

VINEYARD ALTITUDE
1,100 m a.s.l.

TASTING NOTES
A cool-climate mountain Merlot of great elegance, expressing red fruit, spice and a marked freshness from its natural acidity. Floral notes and a mineral profile add complexity and finesse. On the palate, it is precise, with refined tannins.

FOOD PAIRING
Ideal with lamb, duck or finely textured grilled red meats. It also pairs well with mushroom-based dishes, roasted vegetables and fresh herbs. Its natural freshness and refined tannins make it an excellent match for medium-aged cheeses.

AGING POTENTIAL
20 years
