8 years

Tasting Notes
In appearance, it presents an intense ruby-red color with purple reflections. The intense aromas of ripe red fruits like plums and blackberries intertwine with menthol accents and a hint of red pepper. Aging in French oak barrels ensures firm yet elegant tannins, along with great structure and a finish that reveals notes of cocoa and coffee.

Food Pairings
Grilled beef, traditional Argentine asado, roasted red meats, braised and sauced meats, coq-au-vin, stuffed pasta with stew, boeuf bour

Vineyard Altitude	1.150 m.a.s.l
Aging	12 months
