Tasting Notes
With an intense violet-red color, this wine expresses the fruity exuberance typical of the variety through aromas of plums and cherries, with a subtle hint of violets. Thanks to its time in French oak barrels, it incorporates toasted and vanilla notes into its aromatic profile, further enhancing its concentration and elegance.

Food Pairings
Grilled and roasted red meats, beef tenderloin with vegetables, roasted lamb, beef tamales with vegetables, locro (hearty stew), chicken pie, meat empanadas, stuffed pasta with Bolognese sauce.

Vineyard Altitude	1.000 - 1.250 m.a.s.l
Aging	8 months
